

THE BUS STOPS HERE

PARKING & NEWS

TRANSPORTATION

COMING ATTRACTIONS

Welcome Back Lobos and if you're new to UNM, Welcome to UNM!

Welcome Back Days – Monday, Aug. 24 to Friday, Aug. 28

Parking and Transportation Services (PATS) staff will be at the Duck Pond "Welcome Back Days" event answering questions and handing out bus stickers for the ABQRide Free Bus Pass program. All UNM students, staff, and faculty are eligible as is UNMH/HSC staff. Drop by our booth to get your sticker and receive more information about ABQRide or the other alternative transportation programs and benefits available to you.

Veggie Bus Debut – Monday, Aug. 24 – Free Tots!

PATS has converted a diesel-powered shuttle bus to run on waste vegetable oil, thus reducing PATS' carbon footprint. Sporting artwork from UNM student Crystal Wong, the Veggie Bus will begin service on Monday, Aug. 24 on the Redondo route. Join PATS for an inaugural ride and some free tater-tots near the Duck Pond shuttle stop from 10:45 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Transportation Information Center Kiosk – Coming SOON!

The PATS' Transportation Information Center (TIC) kiosk will open in the Plaza Level of the Student Union Building in the first couple of weeks of the fall semester. Need more information about how to use the free bus pass program (ex: what routes to take to get to your destination)? Want to learn more about the alternative transportation programs available to you (NM Railrunner discounts, car-sharing, bicycling)? PATS representatives will be there to answer those questions and also offer one-on-one alternative transportation trip-planning advice. Stop by between 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday and find out how you can save money and reduce your carbon footprint.

Don't Forget To Get Your Free Bus Pass

PATS is proud to announce the continuation of the ABQRide free bus pass program for UNM students, staff, and faculty and UNMH/HSC staff. To take advantage of this program, take your Lobo ID and class schedule (students) or UNM directory personnel print-out (staff/faculty) to the UNM Bookstore, the Welcome Desk in the Student Union Building, the Medical Bookstore on North Campus, or come down to the PATS office on the NW corner of Central & University. PATS will also be giving out bus stickers at Welcome Back Days.

Come visit PATS at the above events and venues to get more information about our services, ask questions, or learn more about our sustainability initiatives. You can also visit our website, <http://pats.unm.edu>, for information or to purchase a commuter permit.