

The Bus Stops Here!

PARKING & TRANSPORTATION NEWS

Janet Clevenger: Friend and Colleague

Janet Clevenger, December 1949 - October 2008.

instantly likable. Though naturally quiet and unassuming, Janet nevertheless seemed able to bring out genuine affection in everyone who met her and she surprised many with her sharp sense of humor and quick wit.

Janet was born and raised in New Mexico and had worked at Durham School Services prior to joining PATS. She attended Calvary Chapel and had two children, a son and daughter. Ever modest about herself and her achievements, Janet was nevertheless a keen and accomplished horticulturist with a special interest in roses and was a member of the prestigious American Rose Society.

Everyone at Parking and Transportation Services has been greatly saddened to hear of the death of shuttle driver Janet Clevenger who finally lost her battle with cancer earlier this month, she was 59.

Starting with us in August, 2006, Janet quickly became a popular driver with her passengers. Equally, her new co-workers found her to be affable, engaging and Typically, Janet braved her illness with courage, dignity and a quiet fortitude that belied the severity and seriousness of her condition. In her brief time working with us and the thousands of passengers she drove around campus, she touched all our lives and her passing leaves us emptier for it.

Ideas? Information? Talk to us: bkilburn@parking.unm.edu

This space is paid for by UNM Parking and Transportation Services © 2008 UNM PATS